Faculty of Education
University of Alberta

Dr. Anna Kirova
It’s Lunchtime!

Created by Newcomer children for newcomers to their school
It’s Lunchtime!

At My School

By: I., A., K., L., A., J., T., & Y.
OUR TEACHER SENDS US TO LUNCH SO WE ALL GO DOWNSTAIRS

STOP AT THE WASHROOM ON THE WAY...
What is the lunch?

Why is this lunch so skinny?

Can I bud in line?

What is for lunch today?

I am so hungry!

I think today I'll have apple juice.

Hi Grandma
'GRANDMA' AND THE OTHER HELPERS ARE FRIENDLY.

Hi Grandma!

Do you want seconds?

Do you want seconds?

YOU ONLY HAVE TO TAKE THE FOOD YOU WANT TO EAT...

...JUST SAY "NO THANKS!"

Soup is better than a pita

No soup is better than rice

I like noodles

I like noodles

YOU CAN ASK FOR MORE...

...IF YOU WANT TOO!
BRING LUNCH FROM HOME...

Can I borrow a dollar?

Can I have a soup too?

...OR BUY IT FROM THE STORE...

I don't have any money.
How old are you?

The food is delicious. mmmmm

SIT AT A BENCH WITH A FRIEND OR ALONE

...AND EAT!
Take your tray to the garbage

Scrape it clean

Stack it up

THEN...OUTSIDE TO PLAY!
School Strategies

Build routines
• Use visuals to communicate expectations
• Model routines
• Have a plan for the lunch break/recess and use visuals for available choices
• Minimize changes in daily routines
• Explain and practice breaks in routines (e.g., Fire Drills)

Create lunchtime clubs
Acknowledgements

The Lunchtime routine was developed by newcomer children as part of a research study funded by the Prairie Metropolis Centre of Excellence in Research on Immigration, Integration, and Diversity (PMC). The study was conducted by Dr. Anna Kirova and Dr. Michael Emme.

For further information see also: